Marlene H. Dordick, Sec.
FCC - Washington, D.C.

I am disappointed, disturbed, yes angry that the FCC does not want to enforce high standards for the broadcasters and demand that they operate in the public interest and not promote Hollywood/so-called entertainment trash. The trash the FCC approves of is an affront/insult to us citizen taxpayers who pay your salaries and operating expenses.

I am a mother, grandmother and great grandmother and I do not want harsh (dirty) profanity, gross mannerisms, nudity, graphic sex, coarse conversation and stupid, senseless story lines coming over radio and TV to influence my family members.

Please tell me how the FCC defines "egregious". Do the chairman and commissioners create the definition? Please reply in writing to let me know what the FCC means by "egregious".

Why does the FCC not ask for public input? Why does the FCC ignore wholesome, high standards that would actually benefit America's families? We do not need our airways contaminated with gutter entertainment pushed on us by the FCC, which exists to protect our families and consumers. Please begin to live up to the reason for your existence.

Sincerely,

Margaret L. Speers

Dear Secretary Dortch:

I just found out that the date has expired in which an ordinary citizen can write to oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards, but I feel so strongly about this issue that I want to write this personal letter to you.

I ask you to please oppose all indecent content, even one considered to be brief. I understand that the Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast content during hours when children are likely to be viewing TV. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest; on the contrary our nation is in deep trouble with this lack of restraint brought about in a major way through the trash that is threatening our country. You only have to observe the nightly news or read a newspaper.

If it is not too late, please urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Beighe
